ISLAMABAD: The Jamali government has informed the National Assembly secretariat that Ch. Shujaat Hussain and Pervez Elahi and their families were among well over 1000 influential businessmen and army men who got Rs18 billion loans written off from the government owned banks during the three years of military government.

Dawoo Corporation of Pakistan is also one of the beneficiaries of such big loans written off by the government banks as Rs 10 million were written off by the National Bank of Pakistan. The loan was outstanding against Kim Wao Choong, Kim Joun Sung, Lee Woo Bok, Yoon Nuke Neon and Chui Myoung Kul.

Karachi-based businessmen have specially been written off amounts by the National Bank of Pakistan.

According to the list of such people whose loans and principle amounts were written off during the last three years, National Bank of Pakistan wrote off billion of rupees from tax payers accounts.

Most of the loans written off went to the textile and industrial giants of the country, politically influential, former bureaucrats and military officers.

The big industrialists like Admajee Industries owned by Farooq Sheikh, Mrs Shireen Farooq, Mumtaz Sheikh, Tahir Sheikh got Rs 448 million written off from the NBP. Mohib Textile owned by Asif Saigol also got Rs 1.1 billion written off in 2002.
