

Main summit decisions

LONDON: Key measures ordered by the Group of 20 summit in London on Thursday:

— Extra one trillion dollars for international bodies, including trebling of International Monetary Fund financing to $750 billion.— G20 nations expect to have spent five trillion dollars battling the economic crisis by the end of 2010

— Extra $250 billion for trade finance.

— Agreement to shame and name blacklisted tax havens.

— New rules on pay and bonuses for corporate chiefs.

— IMF will sell billions of dollars of gold reserves to help poor countries.

— Agreement to 'act urgently' to conclude WTO's Doha round.

— G20 leaders will meet again this year.

—AFP